

Professional Development Funding Opportunity

$1,000 dollars is available to fund a professional development activity that will be a new learning experience for the applicant and have the potential to impact student learning in the future.

Massachusetts Association of Science Teachers Elaine Adams Professional Development Award For Science Educators – 2010

All current dues paying members of MAST are eligible to apply for the Elaine Adams Professional Development Award, established in memory of Elaine Adams, chemistry teacher at Phillips Academy and one of the four founders of the former Science Teachers Area Resource Swap (STARS).

This year one $500 award will be presented to an applicant who proposes pursuing a professional development venture that is interesting and new for themselves and that has the potential to be of use/value for their students and science education. As a bonus, MAST will match this amount for a grand total of $1000! Recipients are encouraged to present at the next MAST Conference.
